

Annual Prize Distribution Function, 2019-20

Government College Seraj (Lambathach) organized its Annual Prize Distribution Function of the academic year on 7th March 2020 in the campus. Deputy Commissioner Mandi, Sh. Rugved Thakur presided over the function along with his wife. Principal of the college, Dr. Y.P. Sharma honoured the chief guest with traditional pahari shawl-topi along with a memento. After the welcome address by CSCA Vice-President Kushal Chand, principal of the college presented the annual report before the audience, and acquainted everyone with the progress card of the institution. Cultural items like solo song, solo dance, duel dance, and group dance were performed by the participants to entertain the audience as well as conveying a message to preserve the cultural heritage or ethos. PTA President, Sh. Purshotam Sharma expressed his great concern regarding the vacant posts of the faculty in the institution. Meritorious students of the academic session were given prizes for establishing milestones in fields like academic, cultural, sports, co-curricular activities including CSCA body and its members. The chief guest appreciated the prize winners in his speech and motivated students to do hard work, systematically and smartly. He also expressed his great concern about the ever increasing problem of drug-addiction among the youth, and appealed them to SAY NO TO DRUGS, and maintain a healthy lifestyle. Vote of thanks was presented by Prof. Prem Prakash. Besides faculty of the college, SDM of the subdivision, Sh. Surender Mohan was also present on the occasion. Some captions of the event are given below:

